Management's Discussion and Analysis

Revenue increased 12% to $1,120 million in fiscal 2024 from $1,000 million in fiscal 2023. The increase was driven primarily by growth in cloud subscriptions and higher average contract values in the enterprise segment.

Operating income increased to $224 million in fiscal 2024 from $190 million in fiscal 2023. The improvement reflected operating leverage on higher revenue and lower marketing spend as a share of revenue, partially offset by increased research and development headcount.

Liquidity and capital resources: we ended the year with $310 million of cash and cash equivalents and had no borrowings outstanding under our revolving credit facility.
